(c) if the notice is addressed to suppliers by publication in the Gazette and in a newspaper circulating, generally in Fiji.

(4) The Director shall take reasonable steps to bring the publication of a notice under subsection (3)(c) to the attention of suppliers who are known by the Director to be affected by the notice.

(5) Where goods are to be repaired in pursuance of a defect notice, the supplier must, on delivery of the goods for repair, cause the goods to be repaired so that -

(a) any defect in, or dangerous characteristics of, the goods identified in the notice is remedied; and

(b) if there is a safety standard in respect of the goods - the goods comply with that standard.

(6) Where goods are to be replaced in pursuance of a defect notice, the supplier must replace the goods with similar goods that -

(a) do not have the defect or dangerous characteristic identified in the notice; and

(b) if there is a safety standard applicable to the goods - comply with that standard.

(7) The cost of the repair or replacement of goods - under subsection (5) or (6) (including any necessary transportation costs) shall be borne by the supplier.

(8) Where a refund of the amount paid for goods is to be made in pursuance of a defect notice, the supplier shall, subject to subsection (9), make such a refund in full.

(9) If the goods were acquired from the supplier more than 12 months before the date of the application for the refund, the amount of the refund may be reduced by an appropriate amount to allow for the use of the goods.

(10) The cost of the return of the goods under subsection (8) (including any necessary transportation costs) shall be borne by the supplier.

(11) If a supplier -

(a) fails to comply with a defect notice;

(b) supplies goods to which a defect notice relates while the notice remains in force;
or

(c) fails to comply with a requirement of this section, the supplier is guilty of an offence.

37. Opportunity to Make Representation.

(1) Where the Director proposes to publish a defect notice in relation to goods, the Director shall before publishing a notice in the Gazette and in a newspaper circulating generally in Fiji shall afford the affected supplier opportunity to be heard by the Council and shall:

(a) make available to the supplier a draft of the proposed defect notice;

(b) the reason for the proposed publication of the defect notice; and

(c) an invitation to the supplier to request the Council, within a period specified in the notice (which shall be a period of at least 14 days from the proposed date of publication), to hold a hearing in relation to the proposed publication of the defect notice.

(2) The Director shall take reasonable steps to deliver the notice tender subsection (1) to the supplier who may be affected by the defect notice.

(3) If the supplier does not respond hearing to invitation to make representation the Council shall notify the Minister accordingly.

(4) If a request for a hearing is made within the relevant time, the Council shall appoint a time and place for the holding of the hearing, and give notice of the time and place so appointed to the Minister and to the supplier.

(5) At the hearing -

(a) the Council may be represented by a member or members nominated by the Chairman;

(b) each supplier who requested a hearing is entitled to be present or to be represented;

(c) any other person whose presence at the hearing is considered by the council to be appropriate is entitled to be present or to be represented;

(d) The Director or Chief Inspector are entitled to be present or to be represented;

(e) the procedure to be followed will be determined by the Council.

(6) The Council shall allow the parties to the hearing -

(a) reasonable access to information on the basis of which the publication of a defect notice is proposed; and

(b) an opportunity to make representations on the question of whether the defect notice should be published.

(7) As soon as is practicable after the conclusion of a hearing the Council shall recommend to the Minister that -

(a) the Director publish a defect notice in terms of the draft notice; or

(b) the Director publish the defect notice with specified modifications; or

(c) the Director refrain from publishing the defect notice.

(8) If it decides not to publish a defect notice, the Director shall give notice of that decision to the Supplier.

38. Notification of Voluntary Recall.

(1) Where a supplier voluntarily takes action to recall goods because the goods will or may cause injury, the supplier shall, within twenty-four hours after taking that action, give notice in writing to the Director-

(a) stating that the goods are subject to recall;

(b) setting out the nature of the defect in, or dangerous characteristic of, the goods;
and

- (c) setting out the action that the supplier intends to take on the recall.
- (2) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

PART V - QUALITY STANDARDS

PART VI - QUALITY CONTROL

45. Register of Conformity Certificate.

(1) The Director shall maintain register of conformity for commodity, process, practice or services by a manufacturer or supplier that conforms to Fiji Standards specification.

(2) On application by a person for issue of conformity certificate, the Chief Inspector shall ensure that the commodity, process, practice or service produced or supplied by the manufacturer or supplier comply in every respect of this Decree.

(3) On receipt of conformity certificate, the manufacturer or supplier or as the case may be, may make application to the Director for issue of standards mark.

46. Standards Mark.

(1) The Director with approval of the Minister may from time to time prescribe standards mark to be used in relation to commodities, processes, practices or services to distinguish commodities, processes, practices, or services which conform to a Fiji standards specification or other specification, from others which do not conform to that specification.

(2) Standards mark shall be of such design as the Minister may from time to time approve, provided however that any standards mark, shall be registerable trade mark under the Trade Mark Act.

(3) For the purposes of this Decree the Director may from time to time make application to the registrar of trade marks for the registration of any standards mark as a registered trade-mark under the Trade Mark Act.

(4) Except with the consent of the Minister in writing, no trade mark which contains the word "Standards" or "Fiji Standards" or abbreviations thereof shall be registered under the Trade-Mark Act.

47. Licences.

(1) The Director may grant to any person a license to use a standards mark prescribed in section 46 of the Decree. Any license under this section shall be granted for a period not exceeding one year provided however that if the terms and conditions of any such license are complied with any license not suspended or revoked shall be renewed for a period of one year on payment of any prescribed fee.

(2) The Director shall only grant a license to use a standards mark in connection with a commodity, process, practice, or service if the Director is satisfied that the person to whom the license is granted has a quality control system sufficient to ensure that the commodity process or practice is in conformity and will continue to be in conformity with the relevant Fiji standards specification or other standards specification.

(3) Every license granted under subsection (1) of this section shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Director shall determine either generally for all such licences or as shall be determined for the particular license. Such terms and conditions may include terms and conditions prescribing the quality control system to apply and prescribing inspection of compliance with such terms and conditions or with the specification.

(4) The Minister may prescribe fees for the granting of any license under this section and no license shall be granted or renewed unless the applicant or holder pays the prescribed fee.

(5) The Director shall maintain a register of licences under this section, which register shall at all reasonable times be open for inspection by the public at the office of the Director.

(6) Any license may be suspended or may be revoked by the Director at any time for breach of any terms of conditions of the license or for non payment of the license fee.

(7) Notice of the granting, suspension or revocation of any license shall be notified in the Gazette.

48. Use of Standards Mark.

(1) No person shall use the standards mark to or in connection with any commodity, process, practice, or service unless:

(a) that person has been granted a license under section 47 of this Decree;

(b) any term or condition of that license has been complied with, including but not limited to any term of condition relating to any quality control system; and

(c) that commodity, process, practice, or service complies with the standards specification to which the standards mark refers.

(2) Any person who contravenes this section is guilty of an offence.

(3) An Inspector shall enter at anytime on production of suitable identification, any premises or place in order to ascertain if that standards mark is properly used in accordance with license and shall take all reasonable steps to carry out such an inspection.

PART VII - LABORATORY CERTIFICATION & ACCREDITATION

49. Establishment of Laboratory Certification and Accreditation System

(1) The Director with the approval of the Minister shall establish a system of testing laboratory accreditation or certification to certify that testing laboratories which apply for such certification have the necessary skill or equipment to carry out tests of compliance by commodities, processes, practices or services to standards specification specified in the certificate.

(2) The Director with approval of the Minister may from time to time make rules for accreditation and, certification and publish it in the Gazette.

(3) The granting of certificates pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall also be published in the Gazette.

(4) The Director with the approval of the Minister may appoint competent; persons or organization either in Fiji or from another country to carry out examination of testing laboratories to ascertain its capability.

(5) The Director on application from a person may cause such examination as considered necessary to ascertain its capability and may either approve the application or may refuse it;

(6) The person whose application is refused may appeal to the Minister, and each such appeal with grounds shall be delivered to the Minister within 14 days of the notification of the refusal by the Director;

(7) The Minister after receipt of the application referred at subsection (6), shall direct that necessary investigation be carried out on receipt of the report of the investigation may direct the Director to issue the standards mark or dismiss the appeal.

PART VIII - MISCELLANEOUS

Offences, Court Enforcement, Defences and Remedies

50. Penalties

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) any person guilty of an offence under this Decree for which no other penalty is provided is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.00 for a first offence and $10,000.00 for a second or subsequent offence.

(2) Every person who commits an offence against this Decree is liable in addition to the fine in subsection (1); and

(3) Where a person is convicted of any offence against this Decree and the court by which he is convicted is of the opinion that the offence was committed to defraud, that person shall be liable, in addition to or instead of any other penalty, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

(4) The maximum penalty for an offence under a provision of this Decree committed by a body corporate is a fine that is five times the fine provided for in the provision or, as the case may be, a fine that is five times the fine provided for in subsection (1).

(5) If a person is convicted of an offence under this Decree and the court considers that the commission of the offence caused another person to suffer pecuniary loss, the court may order the convicted person to pay to the other person a specified amount of compensation for the loss.

(6) The court may make such an order whether or not it imposes a penalty for the offence.

(7) The amount ordered to be paid may be recovered in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due by the convicted person to the other person.

(8) Unless otherwise expressly provided, any goods or services in connection with which any offence against this Decree is committed may; on conviction of any person guilty of the offence, be forfeited to the state by order of the court, and such forfeiture may, in the case of goods or articles extend to the whole of any similar articles found on the defendant's premises or in his possession at the time the offence was committed.

51. Discretionary Exemptions

(1) The Minister may, upon the application of any person, notice in writing and publishing the notice in the Gazette, grant an exemption from compliance with any specified provision of the Decree in relation to any specified goods or class of goods, where the Minister is satisfied-

(a) that the goods are or were intended for export from Fiji and it is reasonable that the exemption be granted;

(b) that the goods were brought into Fiji and it is reasonable that the exemption be granted; or

(c) that having regard to the particular circumstances and the general purposes of this Decree it is reasonable that the exemption be granted.

(2) An exemption granted under this section may -

(a) apply (in addition to the applicant) to or any person specified in the notice;

(b) be permanent or for a period specified in the notice; and

(c) be unconditional or subject to conditions specified in the notice.

(3) The Minister may, for good cause, by giving notice in writing to the applicant for an exemption granted under this section and publishing the notice in the Gazette, vary or revoke the exemption or any condition of the exemption or impose a further such condition. Any person to whom an exemption under this section applies who breaches, or fails to comply with, any condition of the exemption shall be guilty of an offence.

52. Defences.

(1) In proceedings for an offence against this Decree it shall, subject to subsection (2) of this section, be a defence for the person charged to prove -

(a) that the commission of the offence was due to a mistake, to reliance on information provided to him by, or the act or default of, another person other than his employee, or to some cause beyond his control; and

(b) that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence.

(2) In proceedings for an offence against this Decree, a person shall not, without the leave of the court, be entitled to rely upon the defence that the commission of an offence was due to the act or default of another person or to reliance on information provided to him by another person unless, within seven days before the hearing, he has served on the complainant a notice in writing giving such information identifying or assisting in the identification of that other person as was then in his possession.

53. Contracts Not Avoided for Breach of Decree.

A contract for the supply of goods or services is not rendered void or unenforceable by reason only of any breach of or non-compliance with any provision of this Decree.

54. Evidence by Certificate.

(1) A certificate issued by the Director or Chief Inspector or an Inspector in relation to any matters of a prescribed kind shall, in any proceedings under this Decree, be accepted as proof of those matters in the absence of proof to the contrary.

(2) A document purporting to be a certificate referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall, in any proceedings under this Decree, be accepted as such in the absence of proof to the contrary.

55. Evidentiary Provisions.

(1) In proceedings for an offence against this Decree, where it appears to the court from an examination of any information provided in relation to any goods or services, that the information has been provided by, or on behalf of, any person whose name appears therein or whose identity may be inferred therefrom it shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be presumed that the information was provided by, or on behalf of, that person.

(2) In proceedings for an offence against this Decree, where it appears to the court from an examination of any packaged goods that the goods were packaged by, or on behalf of, any person whose name appears therein or whose identity may be inferred therefrom or were packaged at a time or place directly or indirectly indicated thereon, it shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be presumed that the goods were packaged by, or on behalf of, that person or at that time or place.

(3) In proceedings for an offence against this Decree, an allegation in the complaint that the defendant is a body corporate incorporated under the law shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be accepted as proof of the matter alleged.

(4) In proceedings for an offence against this Decree, an allegation in the complaint that a person is an Inspector, shall in the absence of proof to the contrary, be accepted as proof of the matter.

56. Offences by Bodies Corporate.

(1) Where a body corporate is guilty of an offence against this Decree, every director and other officer and the manager of the body corporate shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the same penalty as is prescribed for that offence unless he proves that he did not know and could not reasonably be expected to have known of the commission of the offence or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

57. Offences Due to Act or Default of Other Person.

Where a person has committed an offence against this Decree, or would have committed an offence against this Decree, but for the fact that he could establish a defence under section 52 of this Decree, and the offence, or what would have constituted the offence, was due to the act or default of another person-

(a) that other person-

(i) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the same penalty as is prescribed for the first mentioned offence; and

(ii) may be charged with and convicted of the offence by virtue of this section whether or not proceedings are taken against the first mentioned person;

and

(b) the first mentioned person shall be a competent and compellable witness in any proceedings taken against that other person in respect of the offence -

58. Compensation.

(1) A person who suffers loss through the failure of a manufacturer or supplier to comply with a provision of this Decree (or jointly from them both) for the loss may recover compensation in the same way as damages for a tort.

(2) If in proceedings for the compensation it is established that the person claiming compensation contributed to his or her loss, that fact may be reflected in any award of compensation to that person.

(3) A court by which a manufacturer or supplier is convicted of an offence may on application by a person claiming to have suffered loss in consequence of the offence, order the convicted person, to pay to that person an amount fixed by the court by way of compensation under this section.

59. Statutory Remedies to be Non-Exclusive.

The remedies for which this Decree provides are not mutually exclusive; hence, the fact that a person seeks or obtains one such remedy does not preclude that person from pursuing or obtaining another or others.

60. Regulations.

(1) The Minister may make such regulations prescribing anything which is required to be prescribed and generally for the better carrying into effect of the provision of this Decree.

(2) Prescribing a penalty for any offence against any regulation not exceeding -

(a) a fine of $5,000 for a first offence or a fine of $10,000 for a second or subsequent offence;

(b) where a court is of opinion that an offence under the regulations of which a person is convicted was committed to commit fraud, imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years in addition to or instead of any fine; and

(c) where an offence has been committed by a body corporate a fine which is five times the fine provided for under sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph.

Made this 6th day of May 1992.

P.K. GANILAU
President of the Sovereign
Democratic Republic of Fiji and Commander-in-Chief
